ATI INSIDER TOURS

ATI Insider Tours focus on authentic local experiences with small groups (max 25 passengers). Guided by local experts, these tours explore destinations off the beaten path with city-center hotels, deluxe sprinter/mini-coach transport, and a slower pace for more immersion. Activities often involve walking or small vehicles, requiring higher physical activity. Insider Tours are more curated and independent than traditional escorted programs.

ATI CLASSIC TOURS

ATI's Classic Tours highlight America's must-see destinations at great value with 3–4 star, centrally located hotels. They include key attractions while offering optional excursions and flexibility in dining—meals are usually not included except for an optional breakfast plan. Classic Tours provide comfort, variety, and opportunities to experience more at your own pace.

ATI ESSENTIAL TOURS

Essential Tours mirror Classic itineraries but with a more budget-friendly approach. Hotels are often just outside parks or city centers, and services like porterage may be excluded to keep prices lower. Meals are not included, but guests enjoy full Tour Director support and an escorted experience. Essential Tours offer ATI quality and highlights in a simpler, value-driven format.

Day 4: Leave Natchez and drive on to Memphis, home of 'Sun Records'. As a large river port, it was one of the most important links in the cotton trade before the Civil War. Memphis is also known as the "home of the blues." A brief city tour will take you to the city's liveliest street, Beale Street, where the blues and other types of music are played nightly in almost a dozen clubs. Travel along historic Front Street, known as Cotton Row in the days when cotton traders and merchants conducted business here. Of course, no visit to Memphis would be complete without a visit to Graceland, the home of Elvis Presley (optional).

MEMPHIS - NASHVILLE

Day 5: Continue on to Nashville, known as the capital of country music. The city earned its title with the very first airing of the WSM Barn Dance radio program, the forerunner of the Grand Ole Opry. The newly renovated Ryman Auditorium in downtown Nashville, once home of the Grand Ole Opry, the studios near Music Row, and Opryland itself attest to Nashville's reputation as the most important city in country music.

NASHVILLE

Day 6: Begin your day in this dynamic and thriving cultural and state capital of Tennessee with a morning city tour. While exploring the city's landmarks, perhaps you'll discover a new country music classic before they even hit the charts while visiting one of the many recording studios around town. Perhaps enjoy dinner and a show in the evening as a optional excursion.

NASHVILLE - CHATTANOOGA - ATLANTA

Day 7: Leaving Music City, we head to Chattanooga, home to the famous Choo Choo and which has received national recognition for the renaissance of its beautiful downtown and redevelopment of its riverfront. ATLANTA - DEPARTURE

Day 8: Morning at your leisure before departure. Your ATI Tour Director will be available to assist you in arranging individual transfers to Atlanta International Airport or with sightseeing recommendation for the day should you want to enjoy this great city further. The legendary old road passes through a variety of pure Americana landscapes and takes in some of the country's biggest, oldest and most peculiar sites along the way. Begin the journey by following the traditional East–West direction of Route 66 from Chicago to St. Louis, Missouri, traveling through cornfields and flat prairies. When we arrive in St. Louis, one of the largest cities along Route 66, you can follow in the footsteps of legendary explorers, including Lewis and Clark, at the Gateway Arch, the gate to the West and the nation's tallest monument within a National Park.

ST. LOUIS - SPRINGFIELD

Day 4: Continue through the Ozark Highlands of Southern Missouri, recognized as the birthplace of Route 66. En route, stop at the Meramec Caverns, a natural limestone cave whose formations and colors are as unique as they are beautiful. Adding to the pleasure of exploring the caves is learning that Jesse James used them as a hideout and took advantage of the underground river to escape through the "Back Door."

SPRINGFIELD - TULSA - OKLAHOMA CITY

Day 5: This morning, cut through the south-eastern corner of Kansas on your way to Oklahoma City. The Oklahoma section of Route 66 contains more drivable miles than any other state. Portion of this stretch was even used by many Oklahoman families headed west in search of better opportunities during the 1930s. The famous blue whale statue in Catoosa remains a landmark along Route 66. Once arriving in Tulsa, the Avery Route 66 memorial bridge connects the east with the west. Constructed in 1915 but closed to both vehicles and pedestrians, it gained its place on the list of National Historic Places in 1996. A brief orientation tour will commence upon arrival in Oklahoma City, the state capital of Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMA CITY - AMARILLO

This area of Texas was once the buffalo-rich grasslands of the Great Plains, inhabited by the Kiowa and Comanche Native Americans. Stop at the Oklahoma Route 66 museum in Clinton, where you can experience 6 decades of Route 66 history. (admission included)

Stop in Shamrock, Texas, known for the once beloved Conoco Tower Station and U-drop café, and the 1929 opened and restored Phillips 66 gas station for a photo stop in Mclean. Oil companies opened many gas stations as the need for petrol increased, as the number of travelers increased on Route 66.

AMARILLO - ALBUQUERQUE

Day 7: Before leaving Amarillo, a visit to the world-famous Cadillac Ranch is a must. Here, you experience a unique display of art featuring a row of ten colorful painted Cadillac cars. Buried grill first in the ground since 1974. The Cadillacs range in production years between 1949 and 1963. This art display is now home to over 1 million visitors a year.

Continue westbound and arrive in the neighboring state of New Mexico with destination Albuquerque. This city is not only the state's largest but also known as the hub for technology, the arts, and the annual International Balloon Festival.

ALBUQUERQUE - GALLUP - HOLBROOK

Day 8: Leave Albuquerque and travel north to another spectacular Route 66 community, Gallup. Having barely changed since Route 66's heydays, this city serves up a slice of Americana rarely seen nowadays, along with one of the best strips of Neon signs you will see anywhere on the old route. Shop one of the unique gift stores of the Southwest. When leaving Gallup, you will enter the Nation's largest Native American Reservation, home to the Navajo Nation.
